Can You Hear Moshiach Knocking?

Dovid Kopel

Who is to say that the perfect קשיא (difficult question) — the perfect תירוץ (answer) — cannot bring משיח? Not merely because of the כח (power) of the inspiration, or the beauty of the וואַרט (Torah thought) itself, but because of the קדושה, the שמחה, the movement created in the פמליא דמעלה (the Heavenly court) — of which we have no concept.

חז״ל tell us that one מצוה can tip the entire world. That alone is enough. But how much more so when that מצוה does not remain isolated. One true קשיא can awaken another person. One true תירוץ can give someone clarity. One וואַרט can create שמחה. One moment of עבודת ה׳ (service of Hashem) can quietly set off another moment, in another person, and then another after that.

To think that you understand what shaking a לולב is — that itself means you are missing the point. We cannot fathom the totality of our מצוות. We see the act. We do not see its reach.

So learn that סוגיא (topic) for yourself, and learn it for כלל ישראל. Learn it for now, and learn it for tomorrow. Learn it because the תורה you bring into the world today does not end today. It enters you. It affects others. It rises in שמים (Heaven). It creates שמחה. It becomes part of the movement of כלל ישראל toward משיח.

A perfect קשיא can bring משיח. A perfect תירוץ can bring משיח. One real moment of תורה, one real moment of עבודת ה׳, one real מצוה done with קדושה and שמחה — can be the moment that tips the world. Can you hear משיח knocking?
