Im Yirtzeh Hashem: Aligning Our Will with His

Dovid Kopel

I was just talking to my daughter about something the Mashgiach, HaRav Beryl Weisbord שליט״א, said to me. I don't recall the nature of the comment, but I said אם ירצה ה׳ (God willing). He responded in the sharp manner he often did with me (as I need it): "And Dovidyl, you're telling me you would do something outside of His will?"

The point he was driving home was that all we are attempting to do is take our will and align it with His will. We have בחירה (choice) such that we are capable of choosing wrongly. It is only because of that capacity that we might be able to מבטל (nullify) our own דעת ורצון (mind and will) to רצונו (His will). He permits us to do wrong in His eyes. It is our duty to choose right — to align ourselves with the תורה הקדושה.

So next time you say אם ירצה ה׳, think about it, and do it!
